American Antiquarian Society RECEIVED

Worcester, October 2, 1911

The Annual Meeting of the American Antiquarian Society will be held in the New Building, Worcester, Massachusetts, on Wednesday morning, October 18, at ten-thirty o'clock:

To listen to the Report of the Council.

To elect officers for the ensuing year.

To transact such other business as may legally come before the meeting.

The following papers will be read:

The Place of New England in the History of Witchcraft, by GEORGE L. BURR, of Cornell University.

The Ruins at Tiahuanaco, Bolivia, by ADOLPHE F. BANDELIER, of New York City.

Some Bibliographical Desiderata in American History, by WILLIAM MACDONALD, of Brown University.

At the close of the meeting the members of the Society will be entertained at luncheon by the President, at his home, 49 Elm Street.

The new building of the Society is at the corner of Salisbury Street and Park Avenue, and may be reached by Salisbury Street cars. A special car will leave the Union Station at 9.40 A. M., connecting with trains from Boston, Providence and Albany.
